

Doctoral Programme in Biomedical Science and Engineering

Supporting statement by the supervisor

The free-form statement should include at least the following information:

1. Name of the Supervisor
2. Name of the Applicant
3. Research heading
4. Scientific quality, relevance and realism of the research and study plan
5. The relevance of the research topic to the selected field of postgraduate research and its connection to the department's strategic areas of research.
6. Planned supervision and funding
7. Other information complementing the application (optional)
8. Date and supervisor's signature