Training for Professionals in Hospitals

Training to enhance and upgrade professional skills of midwives and nurses. Delivered in English by Finnish nursing science experts and a team of senior lecturers from School of Health Care, TAMK, Finland.

Innovative pedagogical methods

- Active learning
- Flipped classroom
- Activating lectures
- Hands on training

All training includes material in English and Certificate of Participation from TAMK, Finland.

Guidelines for tailor made training

- Each module is built of 4 hours of training
- Choose 2 modules from each block for days Mon-Fri
- One week has max. 10 modules
- Participants in one module: max. 20
- Minimum amount of trainers/ week: 2

Blocks

The training is built of four blocks each of which has a different theme. You may choose two modules from each block for one week (max. 10 modules).

- Block 1 – Finnish methods for safe birth
- Block 2 – Happy babies and families
- Block 3 – Innovative pedagogies and leadership in nursing care
- Block 4 – Nursing care of sick infants

Training provider

Tampere University of Applied Sciences
TAMK

Duration

4 hours

Location

At your local institute

Tailored programs

Ask us for a quotation today!

Our trainings are planned especially for the needs of your institution, prices vary accordingly

More details on this programme

Mrs. Virpi Heinonen
Customer Relationship Manager, TAMK EDU
virpi.heinonen@tuni.fi
+358 40 020 9907

About TAMK

Find out more about one of the largest and most popular universities of applied sciences in Finland. Our strengths are multidisciplinary education, creativity, and a strong international dimension.
tuni.fi/en