

Laboratories of Structural Engineering

The Laboratory of Structural Engineering offers loading test services for full-scale structures at ambient temperature. Loading facilities are up to 7 MN load levels and comprehensive measurement arrangements and experienced laboratory staff are available. The versatile concrete, wood and metal workshops makes enable to the construction of case-specific loading arrangements and preparation of the test specimens.

Further information:

Professor Anssi Laaksonen

+358505403231

anssi.laaksonen@tuni.fi